

Come Explore Your Waterlife Discovery Center

Saturday, August 17th from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm

Jack Nisbet, Spokane-based teacher, naturalist and author of numerous books that explore the human and natural history of our region.

10:30 am: Jack will talk about David Thompson on the Pend Oreille River 1809 -1812; comparing Thompson's journal entries and mapwork to the water and landscape we see today.

12:15 pm: Walk with Jack in the forest wetland where you will look at seeds from some of the plants and tree species that Scottish naturalist, David Douglas saw near here almost 200 years ago.
